STATE CONVENTIONS.

Ohio Republicans Nominate Judge Foraker for Governor.

Iowa Democrats Head Their Ticket with Judge Kinne.

The Tariff Issue the Principal Question Discussed.

Ohio Republicans.

COLUMBUS, June 6.—The republican state convention was called to order at 10 o'clock. There was a great crowd in attendance. When the name of Senator Sherman was announced as permanent chairman the convention burst into wild enthusiasm and long continued applause. In returning thanks he reviewed the work and history of the republican party. "The republican party," he said, "believed in the protection of American labor and in the taxation of the liquor traffic. One question is national, the other state."

The convention proceeded to the nomination of the state ticket, Ben Butterworth presenting J. B. Foraker of Cincinnati. Private Dalzell offered Sherman and the convention again broke wild but could only be quieted by Sherman rapping vigorously. He said he had not been insensible to the preference of a large majority of the delegates, but he would say, frankly he could not be a candidate, could not surrender his duties in the senate in justice to the people of Ohio and the country. Aside from this he could not accept the nomination without feeling dishonor. Judge Foraker was then nominated by acclamation.

Foraker appeared later and made quite a lengthy speech of thanks, pledging his best efforts to the cause and outlining the importance of the campaign.

After the nomination of governor a platform was adopted which, after reviewing the record of the party, declares against the theory of "tariff for revenue only," arguing that it is opposed to the best interests of the American nation; urges that the tariff of 1867 be restored, and that the national bureau of labor statistics be abolished. The action of the Ohio legislature in the submission of a constitutional amendment in reform of the liquor traffic is approved. The platform approves the theory of taxation, and to provide against evils resulting from such traffic. The present administration of President Arthur meets with the hearty approval of the republicans of Ohio.

The ticket was completed by nominating for lieutenant-governor William G. Rose, of Cleveland, and candidates for supreme judges, auditor and treasurer. Adjourned.

Iowa Democratic Convention.

DES MOINES, June 6.—The democratic state convention met at eleven o'clock, with a membership of 700. Hon. Edward Campbell, temporary chairman. The members of the committees on resolutions, credentials, permanent organization and state committee are as selected in congressional district caucuses.

The convention on reassembling for the afternoon session was addressed by Hon. J. Sterling Morton, of Nebraska. The speaker dealt first with the tariff question, taking the ground that tariff for anything but to get money to pay the public expenses was unconstitutional, and tariff taxes for anything like protection should be abolished. Mr. Morton spoke ten minutes referring to nothing but the tariff issue.

It was then ordered that all resolutions offered for the platform be sent to the committee on resolutions without debate.

Mr. Garron, of Scott, antagonized the speech of Mr. Morton, and made a motion that it be declared the voice of the convention that it does not endorse the free trade sentiments of Morton. Garron was called to order.

The committee on credentials reported 98 of 99 counties represented. The committee on organization reported Congressman Posey for permanent chairman, L. F. Good for secretary and T. R. Walker for recording secretary.

Mr. Posey on taking the chair declared against all sympathy with sumptuary laws and protection; corporate encroachments must be restricted by all possible constitutional means.

A motion was made and carried to take an informal ballot for governor, while waiting for the report of the committee on platform. Mallory, of Lucas, Claggett, of Cerro Gordo, Mills, of Canton, Merritt of Polk and Kinne of Tama were placed in nomination. The informal ballot resulted as follows: Kinne 375, Mallory 94, Merritt 217, Cargett 0, Mills 3, H. J. Hall 23. This was a majority of 32 for Kinne, and Finch moved that Kinne be unanimously the nominee.

The chair ruled the motion out of order and it was withdrawn to be renewed after the report of the committee on resolutions.

The formal ballot stood Kinne 488, Merritt 203, Mallory 14. Kinne's nomination was made unanimous.

Other nominations followed.

The platform, after the usual reaffirmation of the principles of the democratic party, denounces abuse in civil service, national and state, by republicans; favors extension of civil service reform to every department of the government; arraigns the last congress for extravagance; demands tariff for revenue only, and gradual persistent reduction of protective duties; denounces the legislation of the last congress as corrupt and disgraceful intrigues and shameless attempts to perpetuate existing evils under the pretense of tariff reform; opposes constitutional prohibition, and in the interest of practical temperance favors a well-regulated license law, with as penalty the forfeit of license for violation; affirms the right of legislative regulation of railways, but holds it should be so exercised as to promote friendship between railways and the people; demands that the government protect citizens from lawless outrages by foreign governments without charge or right of trial; cordially sympathizes with the oppressed of all nations struggling for constitutional rights and liberties.

Judge Kinne delivered an address accepting the nomination and endorsing the platform. He promised to make it a fighting campaign; that successful or not in this state the democrats would sweep the state at the next presidential election.

The convention then adjourned.

Another Star Route Job.

CHICAGO, June 6.—A Washington special says: The star route about which Senator Van Wyck has just been enlightening the postoffice department is one that he called the senate's attention to last winter. Deadwood is already supplied with daily mails from Pierre on the Chicago & Northwestern, and Sidney on the Union Pacific. A year ago congress passed an act creating two more routes to Deadwood, one from Chamberlain on the Milwaukee & St. Paul railway and Missouri river and the other from Niobrara on the Sioux City & Pacific road. In the winter the postoffice department advertised for proposals for carrying mails over these routes. Thereupon Van Wyck got a resolution of inquiry adopted, and in connection with it he showed the absurdity of these routes. He wished to get the act creating the routes repealed but was told by the post office committee that that was unnecessary; after the exposure had been made the postmaster general would not think of letting contracts for the routes. The matter was dropped there, and the senator supposed it had dropped for good. In the meantime there had been a change in the postmaster generalship, but none in the contract office. Two days ago Van Wyck learned that a contract for conveying mail on the route from Niobrara to Deadwood had been let at $13,000 a year to Miner, one of the defendants in the present star route trial, and he promptly had a warm interview with Chief Clerk Lyman, of the contract office, and a very satisfactory interview with Postmaster General Gresham, who, the senator believes, will suspend the contract as stated above. Deadwood people have daily mail from two points already. The aggregate postal revenues arising within fifty miles of Niobrara do not amount to $200 a year and there are no white settlers between and for most of the way there can't be till the Indian title is extinguished. Senator Manderson and Representative Valentine asked that service be put on.

Star Route Trial.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Merrick continued his attack upon Dorsey and his defense of Kerdell in the star route trial this morning.

Ingersoll referring to the Chico letter said Kerdell, the government's own witness, had sworn that it was written in '78 and Dorsey was then at Chico Springs.

Merrick said that was the last plank of drowning pirates and the only plank.

Ingersoll, who had become somewhat excited, shook his finger at Merrick and said, "Kerdell is your plank and you will sink with your plank, a rotten one."

The court declared the proceedings out of order, even disorderly.

A lively passage followed between the counsel upon reference by Merrick to the "J. B. B." check. He finally appealed to the court for protection from the eternal growls and snarls of the other side.

Without settling the question, which hinged upon a disputed point, the court adjourned.

Attorney General Brewster was in court to day.

Zuni Lands.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—The secretary of the interior will shortly detail a special agent of the interior department to visit the reservation of the Zuni Indians in New Mexico for the purpose of examining the land around Nutria Springs, which have recently been included within the reservation limits by the government, and ascertaining whether that land is really necessary to the Indians' well-being, and for which Senator Logan's son-in-law and others filed applications in the general land office some time ago when it was supposed to be public land. It has been asserted that this land is of the utmost importance to them because it contains springs which constitute one of the principal sources of their water supply and because on it are some of their best grain fields. On the other hand it has been said that the Zunis have plenty of water without drawing from the Nutria springs, and that they do not need the land, and they were not really entitled to it. The object of sending a special agent there is to get some accurate knowledge of the circumstances for guidance in future action, should any further action be necessary. The persons who made formal application for the land incurred considerable expense and their claims are, it is thought, entitled to some consideration. If, after investigation of the subject, the department shall be convinced that the Zunis do not need the land and were not, as a matter of legal right, fully entitled to it, the president's proclamation may perhaps be modified in the interest of those who took preliminary steps to acquire a title, or adjustment of conflicting interests may be made in some other way.

Bad Indians.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Indian Agent Wilcox telegraphed from San Carlos, Arizona, to the commissioner of Indian affairs, an account of the recent surrender to the military of Indians belonging to Loco's band. He says they were cut off from the main body of the band by Mexican troops. They heard that the country was full of soldiers and fled to San Carlos for refuge. He declined to receive them and they are now being fed by the military authorities. Agent Wilcox says the prisoners should be taken from the reservation and punished. They came here from necessity, and will breed discord and encourage absentees to return that they may fatten and grow strong for another raid to murder white people. The reservation is to be made a safe retreat for murderers. Prompt action should be taken with all that have returned.

Pressing the Red Man.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—White Wolf, Big Bow and Sun Boy, representing the Kiowa tribe of Indian Territory, had a conference with the secretary of the interior respecting the boundaries of their reservation. The Indians say that in 1867, when they signed the treaty, they were given to understand that all land lying west of Wichita and Red river belonged exclusively to them, but now the land is held by the state of Texas and is known as Greer county. The secretary told the Indians that he was governed by the law and could not make any alterations in boundary lines.

New Gold Fields.

TOPEKA, June 6.—The Capital has from a Spanish paper, the Lacomotificion, Hermosillo, Sonora, Mexico, received here to-day the first official report of the new gold discoveries in Lower California. It not only confirms the rumor of rich gold placers, but adds a tinge of romance to the discoveries. The prefecture of the district of Guaymas says: "I have the honor to inform you that yesterday there anchored in this bay the national pilot boat Rambler, having on board some passengers from Mulege, Lower California, who bring further news of the discovery of gold placers in that vicinity. The gold fields are situated on the coast and only a short distance from that city. The placers so far as developed lay between San Barjas and Santa Gertrude. By information obtained from passengers on the Rambler, it seems the placers have been allowed to remain idle and unworked because while it was believed there was gold, etc., no one had accurate information in regard to them. That attention has been attracted towards them is now due to the fact that a resident of Gertrude, recently deceased, just before he died revealed to relatives the existence and location of the placers referred to. His people have been working them for some months, until being observed by neighbors their secret was discovered. It became generally known and when specimens of the gold were exhibited in Mulege there was great excitement there. Some of the gold has been sent to this place and is now in the hands of merchants here and attracts much attention."

Damage by Lightning.

NEW YORK, June 6.—Heavy rain, accompanied by sharp lightning and thunder, passed over this city this afternoon. At Ashbury park, several houses were struck.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., June 6.—The large tank of the Tide Water Pipe Line company, Muncie, containing 6,000 barrels, was struck by lightning and the oil fired. Two or three buildings in Muncie were also struck.

NEW YORK, June 6.—Lightning shattered a number of flag staffs in this city and Brooklyn. The residence of Wm. Price, Brooklyn, was burned down. Tank No. 25 at the National Storage company's oil works, Craven Point, Jersey City, was struck. The tank is 50 feet in diameter and thirty feet high. It contained but 430 barrels. The oil was not fired.

WORCESTER, June 6.—During a severe thunder storm to-night, Holy Cross college was struck by lightning and fired in two places. One fire was put out promptly. The other was on the top of a tower 180 feet high and burned over two hours. Mr. Sullivan Dodman's house, in New England village, was struck and badly damaged. There was a serious fire in Sutton but no particulars, owing to no telegraphic communication.

The Markets.

NEW YORK, June 6.—Money 2½ to 3, closing 2 to 2½; prime paper 5 to 6; sterling exchange quiet 4.85½, demand 4.80. Governments ¼ per cent lower for 3s, unchanged otherwise; railroads strong; states neglected. The stock market was generally stronger in the forenoon. The net result of the forenoon's business was an advance of ½ to 1¾. After 12.30 generally stronger and up to one there was an advance of ¼ to ½. After one there was a reaction of ¼ to ¾ but it was recovered by two and there was a further advance on a few specialties. In the last hour the market gathered strength and several stocks made the highest prices of the day. Compared with last night the advance on the general list is ¼ to 1¾. Sales 368,000 shares.

Mining stocks very dull. Iron Silver sold 2.85 to 2.90; Robinson 81 to 77½ Navajo 1.50; Sierra Grande 1.65; Consolidated Virginia 61 63; Sutro Tunnel 28 to 26; Sonora Consolidated 37. The new Stormont stock was active and advanced from 60 to 70. Sales for the day 26,575 shares.

Disappearance of a Coloradoan.

EL PASO, Tex., June 6.—The Times publishes a letter from an old resident giving an account of the disappearance of a mining man named Finn, formerly from Colorado. Early in May himself and partners were camped near Casa Grande, Chihuahua. Mr. Finn left camp on the 8th ult. to go hunting and has never been seen or heard from since. General Guerra, whose headquarters have been at Casa Grande, made a vigorous search for him but was unsuccessful. His partners here have no doubt of his death. Indians were raiding in that neighborhood on the same day that Finn left camp.

Unscrupulous Speculators.

PITTSBURG, June 6. Great indignation is felt among business men here over false reports telegraphed hence concerning a panic caused by the failure of certain large houses named therein. These telegrams were known to have been sent by oil brokers, and the Pittsburg oil exchange held a meeting this afternoon and severely denounced the authors of the outrage and disclaimed all responsibility therefor.

A Strike Ended.

CHICAGO, June 6. Six hundred union bricklayers had a session last night, and after a long discussion it was decided that the men could go to work whenever they chose at four dollars, provided they refuse to work under a non-union foreman. This practically ends the strike, and is regarded as a collapse of the union.

A Vigorous Invalid.

WOONSOCKET, R. I., June 6. James Dolan, pardoned by Governor Butler, of Massachusetts, in a dying condition, was arrested early this morning breaking and entering a liquor saloon. A dozen burglaries and highway assaults have led the police to believe that Dolan is leader of a gang.

A Brief Adjournment.

HARRISBURG, June 6.—The legislature adjourned to-day sine die. The governor has issued a message calling for an extra session to-morrow at 12 o'clock for the consideration of the appropriation bills, congressional, legislative and judicial.

COLORADO MATTERS.

An Important Opinion Delivered by Judge McCreery

Great Preparations Making for the Mining Exposition.

Important Ruling.

DENVER, June 6.—An important ruling was made to day by Judge McCrary, of the United States circuit court in the case of the Adams Express Co. vs. the D. & R. G. Railway Co. Suit was instituted for the purpose of establishing the right of complainant, the Adams Express Co., to carry on the express business on the line of the railway of the respondent, and to enjoin respondent from interfering with the exercise of that right. A preliminary injunction was granted. Subsequently complainant applied to the court for leave to file a supplemental bill and to bring in as co-complainant Wells, Fargo & Co., a corporation organized under the laws of the territory of Colorado. This was on the ground that since the filing of the original bill and joining of issue, thereon, Wells, Fargo & Co. has become and now is a co-partner with Adams Express Co. in the express business on defendant's railway. After reciting the law governing cases of this character, and the general principles of equity involved in the suit at issue, the judge concludes as follows: "My conclusion is that this court cannot take jurisdiction of the supplemental bill for the purpose enforcing as against respondent any right of Wells, Fargo & Co., either alone or jointly with complainant, and motion for leave to file the proposed supplemental bill is accordingly overruled."

The Mining Exposition.

DENVER, June 6.—Applications for space continue to pour in on the exposition managers. Plans were approved to-day and work will be commenced next week on two new annexes, one forty-two by one hundred and forty-two feet, and one sixty-five by one hundred and twenty-five feet. The largest is for agricultural implements and carriages and the other for extra exhibits of mining machinery. The exposition promises to be the finest ever held in the west.

D. & N. O. Construction Co.

NEW YORK, June 6. A. J. Mayer obtained an injunction in the supreme court chambers to-day, restraining the D. & N. O. Railway Construction company, the Mercantile Trust company, and others, from selling certain stocks and bonds of the D. & N. O. Railway company, the sale of which was advertised for to-morrow. Mayer is a shareholder in the construction company, and avers that instead of the stocks and bonds having been distributed among its shareholders as contemplated, they were pledged to the trust company, as security for a loan.

The Queen's Health.

LONDON, June 6.—It has been officially asserted this afternoon that there is no foundation for any alarm in the rumors that were recently put in circulation in regard to the state of the health of the queen. Her majesty is said to be progressing slowly towards the complete recovery of her health. She is pronounced decidedly better since she has been at Balmoral. The Court Circular issued this afternoon states that she drove out twice Monday in company with the Princess Beatrice. The fact that the Prince of Wales was at Ascot both yesterday and to-day shows conclusively that no alarm is felt in the household about the condition of the queen. One of the London papers denies that anything concerning her, other than the statement in the Court Circular, has been given out.

An English Enterprise.

KANSAS CITY, June 6. The Journal's Omaha special says seven hundred acres of land two miles south-west of the city limits were bought to-day by Cornelius K. Scaller for $113,000. It is understood Scaller is acting for an English syndicate, who have large cattle interests in Nebraska, Colorado and Wyoming and who propose to erect here an immense slaughter and beef-packing house. Mr. Scaller is local purchasing agent of Fowler Bros., and it is thought they are the head of the enterprise. He refuses to give the names of the parties, but says they represent three millions capital and propose to invest three-quarters of a million in Omaha.

Ascot Races.

LONDON, June 6. At the second day's meeting at Ascot heath, the race for the Ascot Biennial stakes for 3-year-olds was won by Keene's Blue Grass; J. H. Houldsworth's Lilac second, E. E. Weaver's Brown John Jones third. There were seven starters, including Keene's Potosi. Betting at the start was 9 to 4 against Blue Grass, 5 to 1 against John Jones, 6 to 1 against Lilac and 6 to 1 against Potosi. Potosi, who was ridden by Watts, led to the distance where Blue Grass, ridden by Cannon, drew out and won by half a length from Lilac, who was only a neck in advance of John Jones.

The race for the Royal Hunt cup was won by Guard's Edzevara; Lord Bradford's Nesself second, W. Gilbert's Despair third. There were 22 starters, including P. Lorillard's Sachem.

Nihilists Busy.

LONDON, June 6. The Times correspondent at Paris says a nihilist communique has been issued, which states that the whole force of the Russian government and its most important spies has been concentrated at Moscow during the festivities. The nihilists took advantage to spread their doctrines and enroll supporters in St. Petersburg and other centers. It says the strength of the party in St. Petersburg is greatly increasing and asserts that there were at the coronation officials and others under orders of the nihilists near enough to the czar to have struck him on the brow if the word had been given. It was even feared some too zealous parties might throw a grenadine at the czar.

No News from Crook.

EL PASO, Texas, June 6. Nothing is known of Crook. He will be heard from definitely in a short time. This is the impression of the Mexican officers in Chihuahua.

SANTA FE, N. M., June 6.—No news of any kind from Gen. Crook's command has been received at headquarters here. No uneasiness on his account is being felt. A battalion of four companies of the Fourth cavalry is being gotten ready and will start for a scout on the southern border of New Mexico at an early day.

A Kentucky Decision.

LOUISVILLE, June 6.—The supreme court of Kentucky to-day decided a case of importance to mutual benefit associations. About three years ago a minister named Ricketts became a member of the Knights of Honor in this state. Three days after payment of all his dues the lodge suspended but was subsequently reinstated. In the meantime Ricketts had died and payment of the death benefit was demanded by his widow. It was refused and suit was brought against the grand lodge of the order and decided in favor of Ricketts' representatives. The grand lodge appealed and the superior court sustained the decision of the lower court.

A Papal Appointment.

FT. WAYNE, June 6. Cablegrams received here show that Rev. Julian Benert, vicar general of the Roman Catholic diocese of Ft. Wayne, has been named monseigneur and appointed prelate of the papal household at Rome. Father Benert came from France as missionary forty years ago and is the seventh priest in the United States upon whom the honor has been conferred.

The Cloud of War.

PARIS, June 6.—War preparations on a great scale are being made in China. Three corps of troops are in readiness and a Chinese fleet is under orders to sail for Tonquin.

Annamites have beheaded Father Becket, a Catholic missionary.

MINING MATTERS.

Notes Gleaned From Our Exchanges.

A PROMINENT PARTY.

The Morning Journal of New York, in its issue of May 31, says: "The Journal is enabled to lay before its readers in advance of its esteemed contemporaries, a full list of the European and American gentlemen who are to make a five weeks' tour of the west, under the personal leadership and expense of Mr. Rufus Hatch, of this city. The European guests are to reach New York about the middle of July. Already three of the largest hotels in this city have made bids for the contract of boarding and lodging the party. The start from New York to Chicago is to be made in palace hotel cars on the tenth of August, and the party will be treated to an exclusive view of the Yellowstone park and many other wonders of the boundless west, including the exposition. Mr. Clinton Rice, the eastern and European agent for the exposition, has interviewed the following gentlemen, each of whom has signified his intention of visiting the exposition:

M. M. Moore (and wife) chairman cattle ranch and land company, London.

Mr. John Neate (and Mrs. Neate) prominent solicitor, London.

Dr. Sonnemann, editor Frankfort Journal, member of the imperial parliament, writer and authority on finance.

Hon. Roscoe Conkling, New York.

Albert Bierstadt, artist, New York.

Frederick L. Church, artist, New York.

R. G. Ralston, president of the Farmer's Loan and Trust company, New York.

Senator D. W. Voorhees, of Indiana.

Judge John R. Brady, New York.

Judge Noah Davis, New York.

Senator William B. Allison, of Iowa.

Hon. Frank Hatton, assistant postmaster-general.

Dr. J. T. Metcalf, physician, New York.

W. H. Smith, general agent of the Associated Press, New York.

Mr. Adolphe Boissevani, a prominent banker, financial agent Canadian Pacific railway, Amsterdam.

THOSE MEXICAN MINES.

Denver Times.

Those who know Judge Weston, state senator from Lake county, need not be told that he is not a man to be carried away by mining fiction; that he does not lose his head in the contemplation of vast deposits of mineral wealth. The judge is a lawyer, accustomed to judge by the evidence adduced. He is also a miner, the best part of whose life has been spent among the mountains, and so has become accustomed to the various mineral combinations as they exist in the various classes of ore. He has recently returned from Chihuahua, Mexico, and tells a story marvelous in its details and incomprehensible in its entirety. He went out at the suggestion of Governor Tabor who is one of the heaviest shareholders in the syndicate now engaged in operating these mines. The governor instructed him to test the mineral thoroughly and in such a manner as to be able to tell exactly what may be depended upon in regard to the production of the mine. That he obeyed instructions there can be no doubt. He tested the ore by every means known to science, measured it accurately, and yet his report is one that almost passes the limit of credibility. The dump alone was the basis of a large share of his investigations. It has been taken out in the course of the development of the mine, and the closest estimate of its contents fixes the amount of ore at half a million of tons. This was tested from every point. Ore was taken from every part of the surface. Tunnels were run into the dump and ore taken without selection from the interior. At every point ore was taken, and a large number of assays were made. The results read like a tale of the Arabian Nights. The average assay of every part of the huge pile was a net product, after deducting smelting charges, of fifty dollars per ton, the entire mass being valued at twenty-five millions of dollars. Nothing like it was ever known before in this country, with the single exception of the Comstock bonanzas, and even they pale into faint recollections when it is remembered that this vast sum represents the dump alone, and that back of that is the practically inexhaustible wealth of the mine itself worked centuries ago by the Montezumas and their Spanish conquerers, and still containing a vast store of wealth which has all these years been waiting for Yankee enterprise to bring it into circulation. The story is the more worthy of credence in that there is no desire to advertise the mine, because there is no stock for sale and none will be offered, as it is owned entirely be wealthy men, who are developing the property for themselves and with no intention of putting it on the market. No returns have been made yet, the company confining itself strictly to taking out the ore.

OUR ORE GOING TO UTAH.

Montrose Messenger.

Mr. Knapp and Mr. Ferguson, two prominent smelting men of Salt Lake, were in Montrose Sunday morning on their return from Ouray. They had been investigating the chances for securing San Juan ore, for reduction in Utah, and have purchased several carloads to be used as a test. This is a step that is in the right direction for us. The smelters of Utah have been successful. Labor is cheap there, and the cost of reduction is, of course, low, and should these gentlemen succeed with their experiment, as they undoubtedly will, a splendid market will be opened up for our ores. Montrose being about mid way between Denver and Salt Lake, we see no good reason why the Denver & Rio Grande road should not carry ore from here to Salt Lake for the same price it is now hauled to Denver for. If this is done, when the wagon road is completed from Ouray to Red Mountain, the ores of that famous camp can be shipped to Salt Lake for less money than to Denver by way of Silverton. Then if the Utah smelters can reduce the ores at a saving on Denver prices, all the ore of Red Mountain and the rich camps of Ouray and the San Miguel will find its market in Mormonland.

It may be urged that the Rio Grande interests in Colorado are such that they would prefer to work for Denver and Pueblo business as against Salt Lake, and consequently they may not give the latter place the same advantages on rates. We cannot see it in that light, however. With 700 miles haul from Denver, and about 600 from Pueblo, to Salt Lake, on through traffic, it is much more to the interest of the narrow gauge to build up a great metropolis in Utah, than to help build up the Colorado smelting points. By building up a rich, prosperous and populous territory west of us, that company can look for an immense through traffic over their line.

Another item in favor of Salt Lake is the fact that their coke comes from Colorado. The Denver & Rio Grande would therefore have the hauling from Crested Butte, a distance of nearly 500 miles, the very coke that would be used in reducing our ores after they reach the Salt Lake smelters. All this would tend very materially to increase the company's traffic, and we contend that by giving the western smelters good rates on San Juan ore the railroad company will be pursuing a policy that can but result in building up an immense traffic for the road.

Should the recent visit of Messrs. Knapp and Ferguson result in opening up a market in Utah for San Juan ore it will be a great thing for southwestern Colorado.

PILLEN BULLION.

Leadville Democrat.

There arrived in the city yesterday morning from Ashcroft Mr. Louis Weinel, one of the proprietors of the Ashcroft smelter, who is en route for Hannibal, Missouri, his former residence. He is accompanied by a bar of bullion, the first that was evolved from the furnace of the works, which he exhibited with much pride at the Clarendon hotel throughout yesterday. It was the result of a ton of ore that had been mined from the Montezuma, one of the properties embraced in the Tam O'Shanter group, and it showed 5-10 of an ounce in gold, 189 ounces of silver and 99 5-10 per cent in lead, or a value of nearly $270. The blast was only continued from one o'clock to six upon the afternoon of Friday last, when it was closed for a period of two weeks. In the meantime a force of men are constructing a road from the smelter to the Montezuma, upon the dump of which there are now about two thousand tons of ore. As it is, at present the only method by which the ore can be gotten to the smelter is by a jack trail which is as arduous as it is expensive. The blowing in of the smelter at that camp is indeed a conquest, for it is only one of repeated enterprises that was carried to a successful consummation. The machinery for it left Denver about the first of April, and three weeks were employed in getting it from Granite to the scene of location. It will be blown in for active work in two weeks, at which time the roads will be in a condition for the steady shipment of mineral. Mr. Weinel left for Denver last night.

PLACER MINING.

San Miguel Journal.

Everyone knows that gold was first discovered in placers in California. The ease with which it could be mined, the certainty of returns, and the fact that no great outlay was required to begin operations; was the principal cause of the great rush to the new gold fields. A few day's labor, a few simple appliances are all that are required to place the placer on a producing basis. Each day, if desired, the result can be obtained. They are essentially the poor man's mines.

From the head of the San Miguel for miles down, and from nearly every tributary falling in from either side, exist bars containing gold in sufficient quantities to pay handsome returns under the management of competent men. The mountain slopes within the San Miguel drainage are ribbed with gold-bearing quartz leads which have been wasting away for untold ages, and deposits of gold must have necessarily been formed of vast extent and richness. Undoubtedly the day is not far distant when placer mining will become a prominent industry of the San Miguel. Considerable work was done last season constructing ditches and flumes, and work will commence shortly. We hope that the results may be satisfactory to the parties engaged, and that it will be the means of inducing others to embark in enterprises of a like character. There are but comparatively few locations made, and placer miners will do well to pay the San Miguel a visit this summer.

A leading Russian nihilist says that the nihilists have given up the plan of personal violence to the czar, and instead will devote their energies to getting up a revolution. Such a change would give them a better standing among civilized nations.

A German, Dr. Koch, announced not a long time ago an important theory regarding consumption. Now another scientist, Dr. Schmidt, of New Orleans, differs from Dr. Koch as to the cause of contagion, which Dr. Schmidt thinks the experiments of Dr. Koch do not determine.

Postmaster-General Gresham has ordered that postmasters of the first and second class shall attend to their duties as postmasters and not be engaged in other business. The reason urged is a tendency on the part of postmasters having other business to neglect their official duties.

College professors as a class are long-lived. Professor Charles Avery of Hamilton college recently died at the age of 87. In the same college "Professor North has entered upon "his fortieth year as professor of Greek. Dr. "Peters began his work in the observatory 25 "years ago, and Dr. Goertner has given to the "college 24 years of unbroken service. Dr. "Evans held the law professorship for 22 "years, succeeding Dr. T. W. Dwight, who "was connected with the faculty 16 years as "tutor and professor. Dr. Upson, as tutor "and professor, served the college 25 years, "President Davis 16 years, President Brown "15 years, and Dr. Theodore Strong 15 "years."

Mental labor is not hostile to health and life. But I am more than ever convinced that a man who lives by his brain is of all men bound to avoid stimulating his brain. In this climate, to stimulate the brain by alcohol and tobacco is only a slow kind of suicide. Even the most modest use of the mildest wine is not without danger, because the peculiar exhaustion caused by severe mental labor is a constant and urgent temptation to increase the quantity and strength of the potation. I would say to every young man in the United States, if I could reach him: "If you mean to attain one of the prizes of your profession, and live a cheerful life to the age of eighty, throw away your dirty old pipe, put your cigars in the stove, never buy another, become an absolute teetotaler, take your dinner in the middle of the day, and rest one day in seven."

If Mr. Le Fevre is right, Americans are not as tolerant in religious matters as they might be. Says the Boston Advertiser: "Mr. Le "Fevre, member of congress from Ohio, is one "of the most esteemed of the democratic "party in that state, within and without that "organization, yet he steadily declines to be a "candidate for governor, for the simple reason "that he believes his election would be impos- "sible owing to his religious faith. He is a "Roman Catholic, and frankly says that no "member of that church can be elected gov- "ernor of Ohio, at least as long as he lives. "Is it not a reflection on the fairness of Ohio "citizens if this be a true estimate? Cer- "tainly the day ought to be regarded as past "when a religious test of this sort can stop "the advance of a man who is highly esteem- "ed by opponents as well as by friends. It "is much more agreeable to believe that Mr. "Le Fevre's politics, and not his faith, is the "insurmountable objection on the part of a "majority of the Ohio voters."

The theory taken up by some good Catholics, that the pope's unhappy brief about Irish affairs was due to the wicked misrepresentations of the British government at Rome, has collapsed. The British ministry never suggested any such action as the pope took. Mr. Errington is not and is not to be the agent of the British government at Rome. He has no credentials, except a letter of introduction to Cardinal Jacobini from Lord Granville, which speaks merely of his personal character. In fine, he is the agent of the old English Catholic families, who do not like the Irish, and want to see Mr. Parnell put down. The quarrel, therefore, is purely one within the church. His holiness has listened to nobody but his own faithful children, and at their suggestion he has told the Irish people that they need expect nothing but his disfavor in their attempt to liberate their country from an alien rule. This makes the matter distinctly worse for Irishmen who would like to feel loyally toward the pope, but who mean to stand by their country at all hazards. Even those Irishmen who think themselves very good Catholics are rallying around Archbishop Croke, because they believe that he did not let the Vatican put him down by its scoldings, and that he will stand by the national cause to the utmost limit of his rights as a dignitary of the church. No formal breach has occurred or is imminent; but in point of sympathy a great gulf [illegible] opened between the pope and [illegible] Ireland.

THE EDUCATION OF MINISTERS.

Editor Gazette:

Your yesterday's quotation from the Nation relating to President Eliot's article on the education of ministers, may be suitably supplemented by the statement that the military profession in America is wholly built up by beneficiary aid, in which the money consideration is so great that it is not safe to insult West Point graduates by calling them charity students; and the further statement that President Eliot's education was the most of it paid for by beneficiary funds, which had been given to Harvard college some years before he was born. President Eliot's reputation for looking at a subject on two sides would have been better if he had thought a little before uttering such crudities as characterize a portion of his Princeton Review article.

E. P. TENNEY.

Colorado Springs, June 5th.

We have not President Eliot's article before us as we write this, but as we remember it, one of his objections is that theological schools do not follow the rule of West Point. A person is not allowed to enter West Point unless he has certain qualifications, and during his stay he is expected to keep himself qualified physically, mentally, and morally for the work he has in view. President Eliot would not object to aid given in return for scholarship. The West Point cadets in return for their education bind themselves to serve the government. In fact during their course in school they are held to be in the service of the government, and during the late war undergraduates were actually made use of. But even if the cases were exactly parallel, might we not prescribe a higher standard for men fitting for the Christian ministry?

A better comparison would be made if the case of law students of medical students were brought forward. The world needs good ministers, but so it needs good lawyers, good physicians, good editors, good civil engineers. But if a man wants to be a lawyer or doctor, an editor or civil engineer, he can not find a society willing to educate him. He must in some way manage the thing for himself. These are gainful occupations. But if the love of gain leads men to get into these professions over difficulties, shall not the love of human beings and of the higher life lead men to overcome difficulties for the sake of entering the ministerial office? And the ministry, as a gainful occupation, is not to be overlooked.

As to the endowment of colleges, there is certainly a difference between this and the custom in theological seminaries that President Eliot complains of. It takes effort to go through a college. The objection to the seminaries is that little or no effort is required. And so the inducement to enter the ministry seems too much like a bribe.

Of course good men can and do accept the offers. Probably, however, many of the best class would become ministers without help, as men become lawyers and doctors without help. The system itself tends to lower public esteem for ministers as a class. Now it is of vital importance that ministers be respected, and that they show forth unmistakably in their lives a true Christian manliness.

YESTERDAY'S CONVENTIONS.

One of the most important of the political events of this year, important especially because of its bearing on next year's presidential election, will be the election this fall in Ohio. The republicans met in convention yesterday at Columbus and nominated Judge J. B. Foraker, of Cincinnati, for governor, and adopted their platform for the campaign. Senator John Sherman presided over the convention and in his opening speech said that the republican party believes in the protection of American labor and the taxation of the liquor traffic. These opinions were put into the platform and seem to represent truly the sentiments of Ohio republicans.

Senator Sherman was suggested for governor and would probably have been nominated had he been willing. But he declined the honor. His election to the governorship would probably have given him a start for the presidential nomination next year, and so his refusal to stand seems a little strange.

The democratic convention of Iowa met at Des Moines and nominated Mr. McKinne for governor. As to the liquor question they declare against sumptuary legislation. There was not entire agreement about the tariff, but the platform declares squarely in favor of a tariff for revenue only.

If succeeding conventions would take as decided a stand on the tariff question as the Ohio republicans and Iowa democrats have done, an issue might be made up over that. But as Kentucky has already proved, there is likely to be some dodging.

The general public probably know very little about Judge Foraker, who may be governor of Ohio, or Mr. Kinne, who is not likely to be governor of Iowa.

Yesterday was the time for the meeting of the New Hampshire legislature. A successor to Senator Rollins is to be elected, and when this is done there will be no vacancies in the senate.

The Champion Kisser.

Philadelphia Record.

The return of Miss Alice Harrison to the city of San Francisco recalls an incident of her career when a member of the famous California company of four or five years ago, which may still provoke a smile from those who witnessed the occurrence in question. About the time of Miss H.'s farewell benefit at that theatre General Sherman was visiting the city, and with his staff occupied a box at said performance. Now, whatever differences of opinion may exist as to the military renown of the general of our armies, there is no dispute as to his being the champion kisser of our continent. In fact, the hero of Atlanta may be said to possess a mania for labial salutations of a fatherly sort, and is known to frequently indulge in the proud boast that he has kissed 90 per cent. of all the pretty girls of the United States. His chief of staff once computed the general's kissing monthly average, taken all the year round, dry and wet seasons included, at about 1800, or say, in round numbers, about 22,000 kisses per each fiscal year. If the general had only added babies to the list of his subjects he would have kissed his way into the White House years ago; but his reluctance to waste valuable time and raw material in the pursuit of his hobby induces him, with the true instincts of a veteran professor of osculation, to select only the prettiest of the sex for that honor.

At the benefit referred to, no sooner did Miss Harrison appear on the stage than the old war-horse snuffed the battle from afar, and began to grow restive and uneasy. The staff winked at each other, and soon their chief suggested the propriety of going behind the scenes to compliment the beneficiary.

We must now ask the reader to accompany us to the little Danish settlement of Eerleyland, on the borders of the Baltic, in the year 1831. A village festival is being held, and as usual the distinguished visitors gather to salute the girl who has taken the annual prize for cooking and virtue. There is a young American officer amid the number, who, instead of printing the customary chaste salute upon the cheek of the village celebrity, folds her in his sky blue arms and settles down on her frontispiece like a hydraulic pump on an assessment list. The minutes fly by, and just as the spectators are about drawing their stop watches on the last quarter, the young officer comes to the surface again. As he recovers his exhausted wind the weather-beaten captain of a wrecking crew approaches, and says:

"Young man, I'll give you your own price to ship with me as a diver."

"And why?"

We merely relate this little incident to emphasize our story. The kisser was young Tecumseh. But to resume. As soon as the staff were behind the scenes General Sherman pitched in with the remark that he hadn't kissed anything since breakfast. He was standing in the middle of the stage with his back to the curtain, and absorbed in bestowing a paternal kiss upon Alice, and feeling like a just admitted angel sliding down a buttered rainbow, when that impish young lady saw that the prompter was about to ring up the "drop." Quickly placing her hands over the general's ears so he could not hear the bell, she backed him against the curtain. As every one knows, this wound around a huge wooden roller on the inside of the canvas. The general's coat-tails were caught by this as the curtain went up, and before the prompter could reverse the motion, the astonished man was suspended about ten feet from the stage like a sheet from a clothes line.

The audience went off into hysterics of merriment, while the members of the staff lay down on the floor of their box and absolutely howled, for they only knew that those convulsively clutching legs and venerable gaiters belonged to the commander-in-chief of all our armies. But the first thing we know the general's coat tails will give way, so we will ring down the curtain.

Various Causes—

Advancing years, care, sickness, disappointment, and hereditary predisposition—all operate to turn the hair gray, and either of them inclines it to shed prematurely. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR will restore faded or gray, light or red hair to a rich brown or deep black, as may be desired. It softens and cleanses the scalp, giving it a healthy action. It removes and cures dandruff and humors. By its use falling hair is checked, and a new growth will be produced in all cases where the follicles are not destroyed or the glands decayed. Its effects are beautifully shown on brashy, weak, or sickly hair, on which a few applications will produce the gloss and freshness of youth. Harmless and sure in its results, it is incomparable as a dressing, and is especially valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR is colorless; contains neither oil nor dye; and will not soil or color white cambric; yet it lasts long on the hair, and keeps it fresh and vigorous, imparting an agreeable perfume.

SPURIOUS COIN.

For the past week or ten days residents here and at Manitou and Colorado City have complained that some one was circulating counterfeits of the standard silver dollar among them. Last Monday Under Sheriff Jackson and City Marshal Beall, who had been notified of the fact, began working up the case. After careful investigation they thought the suspicions against a man at Colorado City sufficiently strong to warrant his arrest. As the offense was one against the United States government, the officers had no authority to make the arrest. United States Marshal Smith was telegraphed to and as he was busy, Under Sheriff Jackson was deputized to make the arrest. Yesterday Jackson went up Ute Pass about twenty miles, where he accomplished the arrest of Ed Humphrey, who is thought to be guilty of circulating the spurious coin, and he is now in jail here. None of the counterfeit dollars were found in his possession but there is other evidence against him which is thought to be strong enough to convict. The officers are not as yet fully satisfied whether the spurious dollars have been made in this locality or not. They are the poorest kind of counterfeits, made out of lead, and seem to have been cast in moulds. Anyone can detect at a glance that they are not genuine and it is strange that any of them were passed. The work is of the most bungling description. So far as we can learn but very few of them have been passed in this city.

Humphrey is an old penitentiary bird, having been sent to Cañon City from the district court of this county for larceny. He served out his sentence of two years, and was released about two years ago. He will be remembered as the man who shot A. Hutchinson, at Manitou, some years ago, while resisting arrest.

Disasters.

MILWAUKEE, June 6.—The addition to the Northwestern Marine elevator, owned by Marigold Bros. & Kershaw, burst at 4 o'clock this afternoon under pressure of 115,000 bushels of No. 2 wheat. The walls fell owing to the settling of the foundations and about 5,000 bushels went into the river. Seven tramps were seen dozing in its shadow before the crash and it believed they were buried in the ruins. The work of clearing is going forward rapidly in the hopes of reaching the men if there. Loss on the building is five thousand. Loss on grain cannot be estimated at present.

BOSTON, June 6.—A gravel train on the New York and New England railway jumped the track at the [illegible] bridge, Dorchester District. One brakeman was killed. Another train hand seriously injured.

HOPKINTON, N. H., June 6.—The Hazard Powder company's magazine, containing 1,500 pounds of powder, was struck early this morning by lightning and the consequent explosion broke nearly every glass front in the city, wrenched several buildings from their foundations and knocked down plastering, lamps and clocks a mile away. One dwelling, 300 yards away, was completely riddled by flying bricks.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 6. A special to the Journal from Seymour says: Train No. 2, leaving this city at 4 p. m. for Louisville, was wrecked at Farmington by a trestle damaged by water giving away. David Hutchison, engineer, Miller Hinnes, fireman, Gammans, baggageman, and the porter of the Pullman car were killed. No passenger is reported killed. The engine and the Pullman and chair cars are complete wrecks. The cars are surrounded by water.

PHILADELPHIA, June 6.—The schooner Sinnickson, New York for Charleston, is believed foundered at sea, and the captain, wife and seven men perished.

A Schemer Skips.

LAS VEGAS, June 6.—The Gazette will tomorrow expose the schemes of Wm. G. Corbin, who organized the New Mexican Central & Northern railway under the laws of the state of Michigan, opened an office here, fleeced people and skipped out. He is now believed to be in Chicago or elsewhere trying to profit in some way by the representation that the enterprise is yet alive. Not one dollar's worth of work was ever done.

Justifiable Homicide.

ATLANTA, June 6.—This morning a child was born to Ben Brookins' unmarried daughter in Baldwin county. She confessed that York Cooper, negro, was the father. Brookins thereupon killed Cooper and the coroner's jury returned a verdict of justifiable homicide.

In the supreme court of Colorado yesterday on motion of Geo. C. Bates, esq., Edwin H. Beckley was admitted to practice in all the courts of the state. Mr. Beckley is the first colored gentleman ever admitted to the bar of Colorado.

Montevideo Herald.

A horrible affair took place recently at Rio Grande del Sur, near to the Uruguayan frontiers. A young farmer was bitten by a mad dog, and the remedies were immediately applied to the wound. Cauterization was resorted to, and there was every reason to believe that the virus had not entered the victim's system. When the accident occurred the young man was about to marry, but in consequence of the untoward occurrence, the ceremony was postponed for three months, when the medical men who were consulted on the case gave it as their unanimous opinion that there was not the slightest ground for apprehending any danger from the bite. The marriage took place on the farm, and was celebrated with the customary festivities. After the nuptial supper was over the bridegroom appeared to be seized with a fit of melancholy. One of love's caprices, said somebody. After supper came the ball, and when this was at its height, the newly wedded couple withdrew from the festive scene and retired to their apartment.

About an hour afterwards the house resounded with ferocious cries, intermingled with shrieks and groans. As soon as the guests had recovered from their stupefaction they started in the direction of the cries. They proceeded from the nuptial chamber. The door was burst open and a horrible spectacle presented itself. On the floor lay the young bride in a pool of blood. She still breathed, but her body was torn and bitten as if she had been seized by a tiger. In a corner of the room was the bridegroom, covered with blood and foaming at the mouth, scratching, biting and tearing away at the wall and furniture. With a sudden bound he sprang like a tiger upon the invaders of his lair, and he would have made one or two more victims had not a brother of the dying bride sent a bullet crashing through the madman's brain.

Going Back to Savagery.

London Telegraph.

Lafayette carried an infant son of "Corn Planter," a chief of one of the Six Nations, to France, and educated him in all the accomplishments of a young man of rank. When he returned to America, accompanied by a lady of great beauty and good family, there was no finer gentleman in the New World. Yet within four and twenty hours he was found in the streets of Boston, drunk, wrapped up in a tattered blanket, and surrounded by a party of his savage countrymen. Next day he deserted his French friends, and when Aaron Burr was travelling from Canada to New York, in 1780, he found the unfortunate wife of the irreclaimable savage wandering in the woods, cruelly maltreated, stripped of her property, almost naked, and subsisting on berries and wild fruit. It has been so, over and over again. A young Botocudo boy was brought up by a Brazilian family at Bahai, attended the schools and the university, obtained a medical diploma, and for a time practiced as a physician. Soon, however, he was seized with an irresistible longing for his old life, and within three years after graduating was running about the forest with his tribe. "Jemmy Button," the Fuegian, whom the late Admiral Fitzroy brought to England and educated, was within a few months after his return to Tierra del Fuego as complete a savage as if he had never worn kid gloves and polished boots in London.

How General Sherman Found a Dinner.

Washington Correspondence Chicago News.

General Sherman is one of the most popular men in Washington, judging by the demand for him in social entertainments. He rarely if ever dines at home. As he goes out so regularly he sometimes forgets where he is to go. The other night he came out on his doorstep in a great hurry. He was in dinner dress, but hesitated after he came out of the door. Mrs. Sherman, who was in the hall, asked what was the matter.

"By George," said the general, "I was to go to dinner somewhere to-night, and to save my blanked blessed life I have forgotten where."

Mrs. Sherman came to the door, and pointing to old General Van Vliet, who was going quietly up the street, said: "There goes General Van Vliet. He is generally at dinners where you are invited. You follow him and go where he goes."

"By George, what a splendid idea. I can't miss it following that lead. Van Vliet can be trusted to smell out the dinner places."

Away sailed Tecumseh, and as he did not return it was safe to conclude that he was fortunate in finding the right place.

There has never been an instance in which this sterling invigorant and antifebrile medicine has failed to ward off the complaint, when taken duly as a protection against malaria. Hundreds of physicians have abandoned all the officinal specifics and now prescribe this harmless vegetable tonic for chills and fever, as well as dyspepsia and nervous affections. Hostetter's Bitters is the specific you need. For sale by all druggists and dealers generally.

Common-sense Remedy.

SALICYLICA,

No More Rheumatism, Gout or Neuralgia.

Immediate Relief Warranted, Permanent Cure Guaranteed.

Five years established and never known to fail in a single case, acute or chronic. Refer to all prominent physicians and druggists for the standing of Salicylica.

SECRET!

SALICYLICA is known as a common-sense remedy, because it strikes directly at the cause of Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia, while so many so-called specifics and supposed panaceas only treat locally the effects.

It has been conceded by eminent scientists that outward applications, such as rubbing with oils, ointments, liniments, and soothing lotions will not eradicate these diseases which are the result of the poisoning of the blood with Uric Acid.

SALICYLICA works with marvelous effect on this acid and so removes the disorder. It is now exclusively used by all celebrated physicians of America and Europe. Highest Medical Academy of Paris reports 95 per cent. cures in three days.

REMEMBER

that SALICYLICA is a certain cure for RHEUMATISM, GOUT and NEURALGIA. The most intense pains are subdued almost instantly.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SICILIAN HAIR RENEWER is a scientific combination of some of the most powerful restorative agents in the vegetable kingdom. It restores gray hair to its original color. It makes the scalp white and clean. It cures dandruff and humors, and falling-out of the hair. It furnishes the nutritive principle by which the hair is nourished and supported. It makes the hair moist, soft and glossy, and is unsurpassed as a hair dressing. It is the most economical preparation ever offered to the public, as its effects remain a long time, making only an occasional application necessary. It is recommended and used by eminent medical men, and officially endorsed by the State Assayer of Massachusetts. The popularity of Hall's Hair Renewer has increased with the test of many years, both in this country and in foreign lands, and it is now known and used in all the civilized countries of the world.

Mr. C. H. Clark has gone to Gunnison City where he will open a photograph gallery.

There will be two excursions to Manitou next Sunday one from Denver and the other from Pueblo.

A street extending from Cascade avenue to the railroad track will shortly be opened up just north of the Antlers.

State Senator M. W. Harmon, of Independence, Iowa, is visiting in Colorado Springs, the guest of Mr. E. B. Older.

Sheriff Becker, of Leadville, and General E. K. Stimson were passengers on yesterday morning's south bound Rio Grande train.

Mr. J. F. Pebbles was in from his ranch yesterday. He reports that they are about through lambing and nearly ready for shearing.

Charles Walker has received several very fine billiard and pool tables for the Antlers billiard room which will be opened by him in a short time.

Mr. Augustus House and Miss Lulu F. Fuller were married in this city yesterday afternoon, and immediately after the ceremony departed for Denver.

Ought not an effort be made by our citizens to have some sort of a Fourth of July celebration? It is only about four weeks before the memorial day will be at hand.

Dr. B. P. Anderson came down from Denver on the Thunderbolt last night. It is the first time he has been in the city since leaving for California, and his friends are all glad to see him.

Rev. H. M. Lowry, Mrs. C. H. White, Judge Colburn, Mrs. Wright and Mrs. T. J. Fisher represent the Baptist Sunday school at the state Sunday school convention now in session at Pueblo.

The regular drill of Post 22, Grand Army of the Republic, takes place to-night. The boys are anxious to be well drilled in order to make a respectable showing at the G. A. R. reunion in July.

Frank Church, who indulged in the too free use of the intoxicating cup on Tuesday night, was fined $10.30 including costs yesterday morning by Justice Pixley, which he paid and went on his way rejoicing.

Immediately upon the close of the school term at the Deaf Mute Institute, the board of trustees will begin making numerous improvements to the building and grounds.

Manager Nye has gone to Trinidad to make arrangements for the appearance there of J. W. Scanlan for two nights. He wants to see what can be done in the show line there. If a good house can be procured and the people show a disposition to patronize good attractions, there is a possibility that Trinidad will be added to the Colorado circuit.

J. W. Scanlan, the comedian now playing at the Tabor Grand, Denver, in "Friend and Foe," will appear in this city one week from to-night. He first thought he would cancel his date here, but changed his mind. Scanlan is said to be an excellent Irish comedian. His singing is superior to that of Joe Emmet, and he has other qualifications equally as good.

Mr. Andrew Bell, a resident of Fort Calgarry, in the northwest, now on a visit to relatives in this city, captured a horned owl while riding in the vicinity of Manitou yesterday. It is a species of bird very seldom found in this country, being only native to the marshes of Japan. Mr. Bell considers it a rare specimen and will take it with him to his ranch near Fort Calgarry.

It was rumored on the streets yesterday that Ben Robbins, an El Paso county cow boy, who has often been suspected of horse stealing, has been arrested near Durango with a band of stolen horses in his possession. Report has it that he made a desperate fight for liberty and was only captured after shooting two officers. Some of the ranchmen can now tell where their horses have gone to.

The Antlers arrivals yesterday were as follows: John Annear, Philadelphia; E Haines and wife, Buffalo; Mrs Whitcomb, Manitou; M W Bliss, Kansas City; C A Parsons and wife, England; Edwin Bradley, Pittsburgh; Horace Cole, York, Pennsylvania; G W Gurry, Denver; A L Dunkinson, Chicago; M W Hanson, Independence, Iowa; Walt Smith, Denver; G R Buckman, city; F L Powers, St Louis; E G May and wife, St Louis; J C Harley, Denver; E Houghtaling, Denver; H P Anderson and wife, Denver; E E Evans, Denver.

The Colorado Springs and Manitou advertising committee are still actively at work. Articles affording considerable information concerning this locality have been published in the Boston Journal and several other eastern papers. Views have been taken for a new cut of the city, the old one being practically worthless. Some delay has been experienced in getting out the pamphlet to contain the prize article on Manitou and Colorado Springs, written by Mrs. S. J. Dunbar. The signal service officers agreed to send a weather report for publication in it which has not yet been received.

A GREAT BARGAIN.

I WILL SELL

My Residence

On corner El Paso and Cache la Poudre sts.

AT A BARGAIN

IF SOLD AT ONCE.

It consists of a full block, without alleys; the whole terraced, leveled and set out with fruit trees of improved varieties four years old, has no shrubbery and small fruit, 1 1/2 acres bearing strawberries in high cultivation; ground very rich and well worked, ditched and well arranged for irrigation. Two story house in good order, ten rooms besides halls, closets, pantry and cellar. Fully furnished, furniture for sale also.

The place was arranged for a home regardless of expense, but business at a distance induces me to sell at a low figure if sold at once. Terms easy.

A Card.

Mrs. Rosa Wood, the Milliner, wishes to correct the mistake that she is carrying the old stock of Mrs. Alden, whose place she bought November last, as she disposed of most of them this spring to an out of town milliner, and keeps as fine and select assortment of American and French goods as she previously has done in New York City and at eastern prices. Ladies who think a good milliner cannot be an artist in dress designs and styles of wraps and dresses, and always have good fitting and fine finishing which long city experience with first class trade has enabled her to give. An elegant hat can be put up in colors, the latest textures, the best in the market, in finest straw or French chip, in lace and flowers or Ottoman ribbons and plumes at $10. An artistically made silk dress in every minute detail for $12. Can eastern prices excel? In her new stock you can find beautiful flowers in silk as well as the cheap ones, elegant plumes and tips in every color, with prices low. Satteens, Surahs and Ottomans in Silks. All novelties in Hats, both in colors and shapes. Dress findings to match goods. Fine Corsets. Fine Gloves for street and opera, all in latest styles from the New York market. Respectfully,
